VIP Invitation

On behalf of the Mauricio Macri and Robert Rubinstein ,you are cordially invited to attend the first TBLI CONFERENCE™ LATIN AMERICA 2015.

The event will be held in the capital of Argentina on May 28-29, under the patronage of the Government of the City of Buenos Aires.

The event will commence with Mauricio Macri's Chief of Staff, Horacio Rodriguez Larreta, together with high level authorities from the City Government as well as from other government levels and jurisdictions.

The program addresses critical topics for investors and finance professionals who strive to better align profits with impact - with a view across all asset classes. You are welcome to learn more about the conference program here.

TBLI CONFERENCES offer a wealth of opportunity to learn about sustainable investing and to build a strong network of like-minded investors and business partners. We invite you to share your ideas, challenges and solutions and to discover innovation and investment opportunities.

This event is invitation-only.
